Story Writing Competition

In Memory of Father Joseph Tam (Terese Fung 4C)

Father Joseph Tam was the priest in charge of St. Francis of Assisi Church. He left us in December 2015.

I knew him at Sunday school. He was a humble priest. He taught us that we need to praise God all the time. Father Tam served God wholeheartedly. Although he was very ill, he still met the Sunday school students.

He loved God and was humble throughout his life. I believe he is staying in peace with God in heaven.

Tony and Ken (Kelly Yiu 4B)

Today was results day. Tony got full marks because he is very smart. Sam sat next to him and his result was bad so he asked Tony if he could help him. But Tony looked down on Sam and rejected him. At the same time, Sam's classmate, Ken, was looking at them. Ken said, 'Although I just got 85 marks, I can teach you what I know.'

Each recess, Ken helped Sam and Sam did well in the next exam.

One day, Sam and Ken were chatting on a chair in the playground. Tony was playing basketball with his friends and he hit Sam with the ball. 'I think your result is bad! Your hard work won't pay off,' said Tony. Sam cried and Ken comforted him. They became best friends. One month later, Sam got 80 marks in the test!

From this story, I learnt that if we do good things, we cannot be too proud of ourselves. In contrast, we should always be humble and help people in need.

My Humble Friend --- Jaime (Carina Tsang 4A)

I think all my classmates are humble but the most humble girl in my class is my friend - Jaime. It is because she is a thankful person and she also has a serving heart.

I remember that one day I brought a story book to school. Jaime loved the characters in the story book. When I lent the story book to her, she thanked me a lot. Jaime also has a serving heart because she stayed with me in the medical room when I was sick.

I like playing with Jaime. I hope I can be as humble as her in the future.

Story Writing Competition

Ashley Changes (Angel Ho 5B)

Ashley was my classmate and she was so arrogant because she thought she was better than the others in our class. She always looked down on people. All of my classmates disliked her very much.

In the beginning of primary four, a new classmate came to our class. Her name was Mary. She didn't speak much but she was smart. One afternoon, I had a problem with my math homework and I asked Ashley for help. But she said, 'Didn't you pay attention to the teacher during the class? I won't help you!'

At that moment, I felt hopeless and I thought, 'She is too mean to others!' I sat at my desk sadly and suddenly someone said to me, 'Can I help? You look so sad.' I looked up and I saw Mary. I told her what my problem was and she said, 'It is easy. If you don't mind, I can teach you. First you need to ...'. She taught me patiently until I understood. After that day, everyone went to find Mary for their homework problems. And they all said, 'Mary is the best. Ashley doesn't help us. She is too mean.' Ashley was angry when she heard that.

One day after the exam, the teacher gave us our report cards. Ashley thought she had the highest score in our class. However, Mary was first and Ashley just came second. Ashley felt ashamed and she went back to her seat sadly. Mary comforted her, 'This time you're not the best but it doesn't mean that next time you won't be. We can learn much from each other.' Ashley realized that Mary was right. She thought that Mary was humble so she was determined to learn from her.

After that day, Ashley changed a lot. She learnt to be humble and she was willing to teach her classmates when they had problems.

The story of Ashley and Mary inspired me a lot. As C.S. Lewis said, 'Humility is not thinking less of yourself, it is thinking about yourself less.' I hope everyone can be a humble person.

The Humility Kingdom (Amber Chung 5B)

Once upon a time, there was a country named Humility. The king there was very humble and loved the citizens. He was considerate and willing to listen to others' advice. He never thought that his words were always correct.

There was another country called Selfish. This country was very strong but the king was very selfish. One day, Selfish attacked Humility at midnight when the citizens of Humility were all sleeping. All the soldiers of Humility were killed and the country was occupied by Selfish.

After that, the citizens were unhappy. The Selfish King thought that what he said was right and everyone had to follow it. He didn't consider the social problems but only trained up the army to fight against other countries. Finally, the productivity of the country dropped. Nobody liked the king and there were many street protests.

The Selfish King was very angry and asked the Humility King, who was in prison, to help him. 'Power and an army are not enough to become a king of a country,' said the Humility King, 'You should have a humble heart and consider everyone including the elderly and the weak people'. Then, the Selfish King ruled the country with the Humility King. The living standard of the citizens improved. Finally the Selfish King returned the country of Humility back to the Humility King.

In the end, the Humility King forgave the Selfish King and they became friends. The Selfish King became a humble king too.

A Humble Girl (Katie Law 5B)

Once upon a time, there was a small kingdom called Arendelle. In this kingdom, there was a village at the top of the North Mountain. A pretty girl called Altina lived in this village. She was a humble person.

One day, Altina went to the market to buy her family some fruit. She took a mini basket with her.

After she had bought all the things she needed, she heard a voice, 'Oh! Please come and help me, beautiful little girl!' Altina walked through the market and saw an old lady sitting on the ground. There were fresh oranges and an empty basket near her. Altina picked the oranges up and put them in the basket. Suddenly the poor old lady turned into a fairy!

'Don't be afraid,' said the fairy softly, 'You are a kind girl, my dear. You can have three wishes and they will all come true.'

Altina said, 'I was happy to help you. But I don't need these wishes because I am thankful for what I have now.' The fairy was very happy. She thought Altina was a humble girl. 'What a perfect girl! You do not expect anything in return! Excellent!'

New School, New Me (Vianca Yuen 6B)

Once, I was a foolish girl who didn't understand humility. I was always teased by other students because of my low academic grades and shy personality. My mood was always glum because of the things that other students said. I dreaded going to school every day. I had nightmares every night. Moreover, I always had scary thoughts so my mum took me to see a doctor. The doctor said I should go to a new school with new surroundings.

When I went to my new school, everyone was so nice. Nobody teased me. I even made some new friends. They helped me with my studies. The weird thing was they were all very smart but they still volunteered to help me. I asked them why. They said, 'Well, the school has taught us humility. This means not thinking that you are better than others. God has created every person differently and we should respect each other's differences.'

Now, I no longer have low grades and I have become quite confident. I also don't have scary thoughts anymore. I only have nightmares when I watch horror films. And do you remember that I dreaded going to school? I love school now! I look forward to chatting with my friends every day.

My Humble Teacher (Charlotte Wong 6C)

My class teacher is Miss Hon. She is kind and humble. She always forgives me when I do something wrong. She also does not feel ashamed to ask and learn from her subordinates.

On the first day of the new school year, we had a math lesson taught by Miss Hon. She asked some of the classmates about their names and feelings about the lesson. She asked a student, who was sitting next to me, for her name. She was the naughtiest student in our class. She did not answer Miss Hon's question but walked to the blackboard and wrote her name on it. However, her name was very strange and most students did not know how to pronounce it.

'This is my name. Can you say it correctly?', she challenged Miss Hon. Miss Hon did not get angry and calmly asked for the pronunciation. The naughty student seemed nervous. She told Miss Hon her name. Miss Hon said cheerfully, 'You are my teacher now!' And bowed to her.

After this experience, my classmates and I were impressed by her sense of humour and her ability to handle hard times.

Humility (Adriana Ho 6A)

Once upon a time, there was a boy called Ricko. He always showed off and nobody liked him. One day, a witch turned him into a pig and she told him that if he could be humble, she would turn him back into a human. Ricko was upset and he couldn't find a way to learn to be humble.

One day, he met a fairy. 'Hi, my name is Karol, who are you?' asked the fairy.

Ricko answered, 'Nice to meet you. My name is Ricko. As I wasn't humble in the past, a witch turned me into a pig. Now, I am trying to learn to be humble.'

'I live in Humility Kingdom. Let me teach you how to be humble,' Karol said. So, Ricko followed Karol and he had lessons from her.

One month later, he became a humble person. He would forgive others quickly, he learnt much from others and he had a serving heart. Finally, the witch knew that he had become humble and so she turned him back into a human and Ricko lived in Humility Kingdom happily ever after.

My birthday is on 26th October. This year, my parents took me to Ocean Park in the morning. We rode the roller coaster, the ferris wheel, the spinning teacups and the bumper cars. They were exciting! In the afternoon, we went to a shopping centre to go shopping. We bought a lot of things. In the evening, we had a birthday party at home. My friends and my family were at my birthday party. First, we ate a lot of food. Then, we had a birthday cake. Finally, the party ended at nine o' clock in the evening. Everyone was happy.

My birthday is on 23rd July. Last year, my parents took me to Taiwan.

In the morning, we set off to Taiwan by plane. It took only one hour and ten minutes to go there. We stayed at a hotel which had a lot of cartoon paintings on the walls. We were so excited and we took a lot of photos.

Then we went to a café. It was in a huge bookshop. In the bookshop, there were different types of books. We spent the whole afternoon reading the books in the children's book level and playing games.

At night we went back to the hotel after dinner. When I came out of the bathroom, the room was dark. My parents had prepared a birthday cake and a present for me. I was so surprised.

It was a memorable birthday last year.

Interesting Childhood Memories

When I was five, my parents took me to Cheung Chau by ferry. We felt very excited.

We walked to a shop and we looked at different kinds of accessories. My father bought me a teddy bear ring. Then, we went to other shops to look for more interesting things.

We walked and walked. I felt hungry. So I asked my mother, 'Mum, I am hungry. Can we eat?' 'No problem,' my mother said. We went to a small restaurant. We bought ping-pong fish balls, potato chips and iced fruit. They were delicious. After a while, we went cycling. I rented a purple bicycle.

One and a half hours later, it was time to leave. We went home by ferry again and I had a wonderful day.

When I was eighteen months old, my parents brought me to Disneyland because I loved Mickey Mouse very much. I could meet a lot of lovely characters such as Minnie Mouse, Mickey Mouse, Snow White, etc.

I really felt very happy when I went to Disneyland. I played a lot of games and watched the shows and the parade. I ate a lot of delicious food like ice-cream, hamburgers and popcorn.

In the evening, my parents said it was time to go home. But I didn't want to leave at all. I still wanted to go to the Sleeping Beauty Castle. My parents wouldn't let me go but I insisted. Then I suddenly lay down on the street. My father stared at me angrily. But my mother laughed and said, 'You are a very naughty Sleeping Beauty!'

Finally we all felt embarrassed because a lot of people were watching our 'show'!

I loved cooking as a child. When I was three years old, I could do up my buttons by myself but I couldn't make any food by myself.

One afternoon, my grandma and I were at home. I sat on the floor, playing the 'cutting vegetables' game. I was so happy when I used my little toy knife to cut the toy vegetables. But it didn't work because the toy knife was not real. At that time, I cried loudly. When my grandma heard it, she said, 'Levina, what's the matter? Why are you crying?'

'I tried many times to use this knife to cut these vegetables but it doesn't work,' I cried. My grandma said that the knife was not real, so I asked my grandma for a real knife. My grandma said I couldn't because it was too dangerous.

Finally, I played with other toys. I was happy because I could learn something that day. Now I know that I was very silly in those days.

When I was four, my mum and dad took me to Hong Kong Ocean Park. When we arrived there, we felt hungry so we went to a nice restaurant to have our lunch. We ordered soup noodles with dumplings, French fries and steak. After that, we decided to visit some animals. We saw some lazy pandas, clever dolphins, cute penguins, terrible sharks and different kinds of jellyfish.

Then we rode on the cable car to the mechanical games zone. We played different games, such as bumper cars, the roller coaster and the merry-go-round. In the evening, we went up to the observation tower and we could see a nice view of different bays.

At last, my parents bought me a cute dolphin plush toy in a gift shop. I loved it very much. We took lots of beautiful photos.

We had a wonderful day at Hong Kong Ocean Park.

My Christmas holidays started from 23rd December. That night, I went to Disneyland with my friends to celebrate Christmas. When we arrived, there was a big Christmas tree standing in the middle of Main Street. We could see the beautiful Christmas lights there.

All the lights were changed into snow when I wore a pair of 3D magic glasses. It was really amazing! After watching the parade, all of us took a photo in front of the Christmas tree. We had a wonderful and memorable time.

Last year, I had a happy Christmas. Mum wanted to celebrate Christmas so she invited lots of friends and we had a Christmas party.

In the morning, Mum went to the supermarket to buy food. Dad decorated the Christmas tree and the house.

When I woke up, I walked into the sitting room. My parents and friends sang Christmas songs to me together. I was so amazed. Then, we ate a Christmas cake and played card games and board games happily.

At six o'clock, my friends left. They gave me many presents such as a teddy bear, a pencil case and candies. Mum cleaned the house and I helped her.

The next day, I had a happy Christmas party. I enjoyed it very much. I hope Mum will take me to the restaurant to have a Christmas party with my friends next year.

James, Dad and I went cycling from Sha Tin to Tai Po yesterday. We were excited because we could enjoy the scenery along the way. First, we put on the safety equipment. Then we started cycling.

On the way, James enjoyed the beautiful views so he took photos with his mobile phone using one hand. 'Don't take photos when you are cycling. It's dangerous!' said Dad angrily. I was also afraid that James would fall off the bike. Suddenly, James lost control.

Everybody was shocked. 'Help me!' cried James. He threw away his mobile phone quickly and held the brake control with both hands. In the nick of time, the bike stopped. 'James, you must concentrate on cycling. Don't do anything dangerous when you are cycling!' said Dad. James slowly lowered his head and said sorry to Dad.

After this incident, I learnt that we must be aware of road safety.

James, Dad and I went cycling from Sha Tin to Tai Po yesterday. We were excited. While we were cycling, James took lots of photos with his mobile phone. The view was beautiful. We could see a lot of mountains and the blue sea.

Suddenly, James lost control and crashed his bicycle against the wall. He fell down. His left arm was broken. My dad and I were shocked. We comforted James. Then my dad called the police. The ambulance arrived and sent him to the hospital. I learnt that we should not take photos when we are riding bicycles.

James, Dad and I went cycling from Sha Tin to Tai Po yesterday. The weather was nice. We were so excited.

We put on our helmets and started our journey. The view was amazing so James used his mobile phone to take photos. We told him not to take photos while he was cycling but he didn't listen to us. Suddenly, he lost control. His bike turned left and right. Dad and I were shocked. 'Watch out!' shouted Dad. It was too late. 'Bump!' James fell off the bike. 'What should we do now?' cried Dad. Dad called 999. Later, the ambulance came and James was sent to the hospital. We were so worried.

The doctor said James' leg was broken. It was painful. I hope he will get well soon.

James, Dad and I went cycling from Sha Tin to Tai Po yesterday. We were very excited as this was our first time cycling near a water dam.

It was a sunny day, which was perfect for cycling. The view was breathtaking there. The mountains, ocean and trees were beautiful! We rented our bikes at a bike shop. We mounted our bikes and started pedalling. As we were cycling along the path, James took out his mobile phone to take photos of the views. Dad shouted, 'Put your phone away! It's dangerous to ride the bike with one hand!' James got such a shock that he lost control of his bike and he swerved.

In the end, James crashed his bike into the wall and broke his right arm. We had to call an ambulance to take him to the hospital. The doctor said that James had to wear a sling and he stayed in the hospital for a week to recover. I hope he has learnt his lesson but I also hope he will get better soon!

A Visit to Ocean Park

5A Hazel Kwan

I had a wonderful trip to Ocean Park on 11th January with my teachers, Class 5A, Miss Anne and her cousin, Alan. We were very excited.

We met Alan at the school hall. Then, we took the coach to Ocean Park. We arrived there before ten o'clock in the morning. After that, Miss Chan went to get the tickets for us. Some classmates had an interview with Miss Anne while some watched the otters. The otters were cute.

We got on the Ocean Express and met our tutor, Jacob. He took us to see some unusual animals. We saw the brightly-coloured toucan. It had a big beak. My favourite animals were the pygmy marmosets because they were lovely. They are the world's smallest monkeys. I would like to put one on my palm! Jacob told us a lot of information about those animals.

After seeing the animals, Jacob took us to the rainforest classroom. When we were walking along a path, Jenny went to the toilet on her own without telling the teachers. We found she was missing. We were all worried. We then looked for her everywhere. Soon, a staff member of Ocean Park brought her back to us. Miss Chan thanked the staff member. We felt relieved. In the classroom, Jacob pretended to be a pygmy marmoset and taught us a lot. He was funny. We laughed happily.

I had a wonderful day at Ocean Park because I could see some amazing animals. I hope I can go Ocean Park Rainforest again soon!

Last month, I had a wonderful trip. Miss Yim and Miss Kerry took us to visit Ocean Park to learn how to protect the animals in the rainforests. We went there by school bus.

When we arrived there, we waited for a few minutes. Then, we entered the park. Next, we took the Ocean Express to go up the mountain to the rainforest area. In the rainforest, there were a lot of animals such as toucans, macaws and pygmy marmosets. All of them were very cute and very funny. I liked the pygmy marmosets most because they were tiny. We also had a lesson in a room. The teacher did a role play. It was about protecting the animals in the rainforests. If we do not protect the animals, they might be killed. We also drew a picture!

After the lesson, it was time for us to go back to school. We took the Ocean Express again to leave. In the Ocean Express, Miss Kerry and some of us took some pictures. I was glad that Miss Yim took a picture with us too. I was very excited when she took photos with me.

I was very joyful but also tired on that day. I hope I can have another learning trip again.

I went to Ocean Park with Miss Poon, Miss Anne, Miss Kerry, Miss Wong and my classmates. It was fantastic and it was the most unforgettable day in my life!

At first, we rode on the Ocean Express to go to the rainforest. Then, we went to see some animals. There were macaws, toucans and my favourite – the pygmy marmoset. When I first saw it, I was shocked and surprised! It was only as big as my palm! It was so cute! I loved it very much! I really wanted to put it in my arms and hug it like a teddy bear!

After seeing the animals in the rainforest, we went to the rainforest classroom and had a role play that was acted by a staff member. The role play was amazing!

At last, we went back to school. What a wonderful day!

An Unforgettable Trip to Hong Kong

Last month, my pen friend, Cathy came to Hong Kong during her school break. As Cathy has never been to Hong Kong before, I had to be her host and plan her trip.

On the first day, we went to the famous Stanley Market. Cathy bought a T-shirt with the words, "I love Hong Kong" on it. I bought a hand-made key ring which was made of shells. Then, we had lunch in Murray House. We had delicious steak in a Western restaurant. We watched a romantic sunset on Stanley Beach.

On the second day, I took Cathy to Ngong Ping village. We rode on the Ngong Ping 360. The 360° view on the cable car was magnificent. We prayed in front of the Big Buddha. We also had vegetarian food in the Po Lin Monastery. I liked the food there very much.

On the third day, Dad drove us to Disneyland. Cathy jumped for joy to see all the cartoon characters. We took lots of photos and rode on many amusement rides. I liked the roller coaster best but Cathy said it made her feel sick. She liked the night parade best. We also watched the stunning fireworks show which was held in front of Sleeping Beauty's castle. It was worth seeing!

It was the last day of Cathy's trip. Cathy packed her suitcase and put them into Dad's car. We went to Jumbo Floating Restaurant which is famous for its seafood. Cathy's flight was at midnight so we had our last dinner there. The food was delicious and the night view was beautiful. Before Cathy went into the departure lounge, we hugged and Cathy gave me a handmade bedside lamp. She said she knew I was afraid of the dark so she had made it for me as a present because I took great care of her. Cathy enjoyed this trip and she invited me to Australia. I can't wait to see her again!

5B Amber Chung

Last Sunday, my cousin Cathy came from England and visited our family. I took her to a famous place – Stanley Market. There were a lot of gorgeous handicrafts, clothes and souvenirs. We bought some souvenirs including cheong sams, bracelets and key rings for our friends and parents. Then, we walked along the beautiful beach and had a drink in a bar nearby.

After that, we went to Tian Tan Buddha which is the world's tallest outdoor seated bronze Buddha. It is really enormous. We got there by cable car. We saw some visitors climb more than 200 steps to reach the Big Buddha. They also prayed there.

In the evening, we went to Disneyland and played some electronic games. We also took photos with our favourite characters like Mickey Mouse, Elsa and Donald Duck. At night, we enjoyed the fantastic firework show.

At the end of the night we were tired and hungry so we chose a Japanese restaurant to have a big meal. Then we went home by bus. On the way, surprisingly, we saw a shooting star and we made wishes. We had a wonderful day last Sunday.

5C Charmaine Mak

Last month, Cathy and I went to Stanley Market by bus. We went shopping. We wanted to buy some Chinese souvenirs. We saw a lot of stuff in Stanley Market. There were T-shirts, Chinese stamps and Chinese handicrafts.

The next day, we went to see the Big Buddha. We rode on the cable car. Then, we climbed a long staircase. We were exhausted after climbing this long staircase.

On the fourth day, we went to Disneyland. Cathy saw her favourite character, Winnie the Pooh. We took a lot of photos and saw the parade. We stayed in the Disneyland Hotel for a day.

On the sixth day, we went to Ocean Park. We played a lot of exciting games. Cathy rode the roller-coaster but I didn't because I was scared. Cathy threw up after riding the roller-coaster! Then we ate at McDonald's. We left Ocean Park by 5 p.m.

An Unforgettable Experience

When I received my marksheet, I remembered my speech competition. It was very unforgettable.

It was in the summer holiday and I was bored, so I went to the learning centre to find what I could learn. There was a speech competition. I decided to join it. I learnt the poem well and fast.

In the competition, my brain went blank when I tried to recall the poem. When I got to the middle of my speech, I totally forgot the poem. I was very scared and didn't know what to do. My face went red. All the competitors were very great and they all performed well so I started to panic. I saw my mum looking at me with her smiling eyes. At that moment, I remembered the poem again. I felt relieved after I had finished the poem. Of course, my result was not good and I felt disappointed with myself.

I learnt that I should prepare well and try to learn from this unforgettable experience. I hope it won't happen to me again.

A Horrible Experience

It was a usual Saturday four years ago. I was walking in the mall with my parents. It was all hustle and bustle inside and that was how I got lost.

The mall was crowded. My parents were feeling great and they seemed to forget about me. They went inside a sports shop while I was fascinated with some toys. The toys were just like magnets. They attracted me to go into the shop so I did. Watching toys always makes me happy. Suddenly, I remembered my parents. I turned around and, 'Oh!' I quickly realized they were gone. I tried to find them but I couldn't. I started to feel nervous. I thought about what to do and how to solve the problem. I decided to go back home by myself.

Back at home, I phoned them at once. They were surprised that I had walked back home by myself. They were even proud of me because I didn't cry.

After this experience, I learnt that we should be calm while handling different problems. We shouldn't panic too! Of course, now I am big enough to take care of myself and wouldn't get lost again.

A Joyful Experience

I never thought that I would win the solo verse speaking in the Speech Festival, but my dream came true this year. It was awesome! I am so proud of myself. It was my greatest present in P.6.

The month before the competition, I practised a lot because I wanted to win the competition. I didn't mind working so hard because I love reading aloud to others. Luckily, I have a brilliant teacher and she taught me a lot of skills. I was doing well and becoming more confident in the months before the competition.

On the day of the competition, I was extremely nervous because I was not so sure if I could make it. I saw some other competitors who were from band one schools and it seemed that they were well prepared. When it was my turn, I stood up and walked onto the stage. I started to say, 'Oh Baby! By June Crebbin.' I tried to do my best on stage. When I finished, I saw Mum giving me a big thumb! I smiled back.

At last, it was time to present the prizes. When I heard I was the champion, I couldn't believe it! I calmed myself down and took the flag. I felt exhilarated about the result because this was my first time to win a competition! I thanked the judge and went back to my seat. Mum was very proud of me. I hope I can join a lot more speech competitions when I go to secondary school.

What a joyful experience!

A Diary about Chinese New Year

16th February, 2016

Chinese New Year is coming soon. I am very excited about it. My favourite festival is Chinese New Year. Last year, I had an unforgettable one.

I went back to Guiyong with my mum. It was cold.

On the first day of Chinese New Year, I visited my relatives. I received red packets. After that, I went to my best friend's home and played with her. We had a buffet dinner. It was delicious. My brother bought some fireworks so we could play them. While I was playing with a small one, my hair got burnt! I was very scared. Fortunately, there was some water next to me, so the fire was put out. I promised my mum that I will never play fireworks anymore.

The next day was sunny so we went to Huangguosh Waterfall but it was too crowded. I couldn't see the waterfall!

This is my most memorable Chinese New Year. I won't forget it. Now, I am looking forward to 2017 Chinese New Year.

Today was the second day of the Chinese New Year. It was a memorable day. First, I woke up early and got red packets from my parents. I was happy. Then, I went to my grandparents' home to eat the reunion dinner. My aunt and uncle arrived after we had eaten some candies. We ate a lot of special food made by my grandma. They were turnip cakes, rice cakes, spring rolls and dumplings. After that, we went to the clubhouse and watched the lion dances. The dances were brilliant.

In the afternoon, we went to Victoria Park to eat vegetarian food at a famous restaurant because it was the best restaurant. After that, I went to my cousin's home and played some games. We got more red packets and sent our greetings to our aunts and uncles.

At night, we went to Kai Tak pier to watch the fireworks display. The fireworks this year were different from the ones before. There were heart shapes, circles, triangles, rectangles and squares.

I think it was the happiest and memorable day after all.

6B Debbie TseA Memorable Day at Chinese New Year

I have celebrated Chinese New Year for ten years. Every year is great but my favourite one is the celebration this year. I do the same things every year but the celebration this year was more special.

On the second day of the Lunar New Year, we woke up early since we wanted to watch the lion dance. One of the performers was my brother. Ever since he watched the lion dance, he became interested in it and wanted to learn about it. It was his first performance. He was nervous but excited. The performance started! Drums were played and the lions danced. It was brilliant so we all clapped our hands.

In the afternoon, we had our lunch. My aunts and uncles were there too! We greeted them so they gave us red packets. We were happy! My cousins were also there. We played joyfully. We ate fried dumplings, turnip cakes and taro cakes. Since it was Chinese New Year, the manager gave us sweet rice dumplings after the meal. We were surprised and we felt thankful.

At sunset, we went to Lam Tsuen to make wishes. We threw oranges on the tree. After that, we ate sweet bean curd puddings. They were delicious.

Finally, we watched fireworks at Tsim Sha Tsui. 'Bang, whoosh, boom!' Although it was noisy, we enjoyed the view of Victoria Harbour and the fireworks. They were fantastic.

At last, we went home. The celebrations still had not come to an end. Uncle Jerry pretended to be the God of Wealth. We sang songs and danced until we got tired. It was a meaningful day for all of us!

We ate various kinds of food such as lotus leaf wraps and siu mai. They were very delicious.

After a few hours, we went home to prepare the reunion dinner. My parents told me that the message of this dinner is to have a reunion. At night, we went to Victoria Harbour to watch the fireworks on the boat.

It was an unforgettable day for me!

Today was the first day of Chinese New Year. My family were very happy about Chinese New Year.

We woke up at 8:00a.m. We ate turnip cakes and drank Chinese tea for breakfast. They were very tasty! After we had our meal, we set off to visit our relatives. They were very kind. When I arrived at their house, they all waved their hands. Red packets were given to me. I ate the special sweets and chatted with them. We watched the lion dance performance. This was the time when public places were very crowded. Many shops were closed but the streets were not quiet. There was a very loud noise from the firecrackers. People were very excited about that.

At night we ate dinner with my relatives. My aunt bought me Chinese New Year traditional clothes. I was really glad about it.

I think Chinese New Year is filled with laughter, yummy food and happiness.

My Dream Job

6A Turana Wong

If I become a Dancer

When I grow up, I want to be a dancer. I want to be a dancer because I love and enjoy dancing. I love dancing because I think it is challenging. You need to express your feelings through your steps without speaking.

If I become a dancer, I will be dancing on stage frequently. If I dance well, I think people will be entertained by my dance. I will travel to lots of places to have different competitions and performances.

Dancers need to be diligent and they need to practise a lot. Dancers need to be fit so that they can wear the beautiful costumes. Dancers need to be punctual too. They need to arrive on time if they have any performances or competitions.

Now, I am going to study hard so that I can go to England and enter the Royal Academy of Dance. I am going to join their training and performances. I am going to do more exercises so that I can stay healthy.

I hope I can be a dancer one day. I will receive lots of trophies and medals. Maybe one day you will see me on stage and you will love my performances.

6B Vianca Yuen

My Dream Job

Have you ever thought about what your dream job is? I have many interests so it's hard for me to choose only one. However, if I have to choose, being a dancer is my first priority.

Dancers wear costumes when they perform. They need to wear the right pair of shoes for different styles of dance. They work in dance studios and perform on the stage. Also, they need to be hard-working so they can pick up the choreography quickly.

I want to be a dancer because I like dancing and I think it is inspiring. It is like expressing emotions through movements. The good things about the job are that I can be in the spotlight and have lots of fun. Nevertheless, I may have to work until late at night.

I have learnt a few styles of dance before and danced on stage a few times too so it will be easier for me to be a dancer. In the meantime, I'll always do stretching exercises, learn more dancing skills, watch people dance and go to dance competitions to gain more experience so that I can become a better dancer and be an official dancer one day.

6C Charlotte Wong

My Dream Job

I want to be a veterinarian when I grow up. I want to be a veterinarian because I love animals. I want to save them from their illnesses with my effort.

If I become a veterinarian, I will work in a clinic and wear scrubs and a white lab coat. I will give vaccinations to animals and do check-ups on them. I will also perform surgery on animals. I will need to be patient and caring because the animals can't speak to me so I will need to find out what illness they have by myself.

Being a veterinarian can keep animals healthy and save them from their illnesses. I will be happy to see the happiness from animals after they have recovered.

If I want to be a veterinarian, I need to work very hard. I need to read more books about animals. I also need to train myself to be more patient and careful.

I hope I can make my dream come true. I will work really hard for it.
